

I believe the Wireless Internet providers need the unlicensed 3.6 Ghz band due to the overcrowding of the 2.4 Ghz band. This is due to the tremendous noise floor that is being witnessed in most cities as a result of the vast need for more unlicensed space. So I ask the FCC to consider opening the 3.6 Ghz band.

Thanks,